

Dear parents / guardian

CAPS Radio is an independent educational radio station that promotes education, learning and teaching. Caps Radio will be hosting a December 2018 volunteering program. This is where the learners are given the opportunity to come in our studios which are based at Nedbank corner 8th floor, 96 Jorissen Street, corner Biccard in Braamfontein Johannesburg to present with our CAPS Radio presenters. Another position that will be available is producing, this is where they compile a script for the presenters and the content will be delivered on air.

During the volunteering program the learners will be taken videos and pictures which will be posted on our social media pages. The learners will be provided with an application form and attach their CVs, motivational letters (one page) and certified copies of IDs or birth certificate they must filled in and submitted to our studios or via email at info@capsradio .co.za.

The applications are open on the 1st of October 2018. Closing date is on the 30th of November 2018 at 16:00. No late applications will be accepted.
